AI Mode
All
News
Images
Videos
Shopping
Short videos
Forums
Web
AI Overview
The University of San Francisco (USFCA) has a 62% overall acceptance rate and a 77.8% early acceptance rate, with a focus on holistic review. Admitted students who defer enrollment typically delay for up to one year to pursue opportunities like internships or service while guaranteeing their spot. Alumni status is granted upon graduation.
U.S. News & World ... +1
Show more
University of San Francisco
https://www.usfca.edu
Deferring your Undergraduate Enrollment
You may defer your undergraduate enrollment for up to two semesters. If you've been admitted to fall 2025, you may defer your enrollment to spring 2026 or ...
People also ask
How likely is it to be accepted after being deferred?

Can you defer admission after acceptance?

What happens when you defer admission?

How hard is it to get into USFCA?

Feedback

University of San Francisco
https://www.usfca.edu

First-Year Student Admission

Fall Senior Grades: If you're applying Early Decision or Early Action and your application is deferred to Regular Decision, you will be required to submit your ...

People also search for

When does university of san francisco send acceptance letters

University of San Francisco application fee

USF Dons fee Waiver

Usfca Financial Aid

University of San Francisco Finance

Usfca net Price Calculator

Office of Admissions | University of South Florida
https://admissions.usf.edu

College Decision Letters: Your Next Steps - Office of Admissions

Mar 5, 2025 — A deferral letter. This means you have been put on hold. The good news is that it also means you are a viable applicant. A rejection letter.

Reddit · r/USF
10+ comments · 1 month ago

Haven't heard back : r/USF

Did you check the status in your application portal? Maybe that shows the status (accepted, declined, deferred, etc) even though you didn't see ...

University of San Francisco
https://www.usfca.edu

Frequently Asked Questions - School of Education

Yes. Most admission decisions can be deferred for one semester or a full year. Programs that only admit once per year will only allow you to defer to the ...

Facebook · OFFICIAL Parents of Class of 2026
90+ comments · 2 months ago

I'm so confused. Please help? Is my child accepted for Spring 27? I just don't ...

I'm so confused. Please help? Is my child accepted for Spring 27? I just don't understand the wording…

"While the Office of University Admissions is unable to admit you for Fall 2026, we would ... More ›

Top answer · 86 votes

This happened to my niece(same school)! It ended up being a really awesome thing for her! She ... More ›

49 votes

To be fair to OP, it is hone confusingly worded emai Deferral is a term of art in More ›

21 votes

Reddit · r/usfca
4 comments · 3 years ago

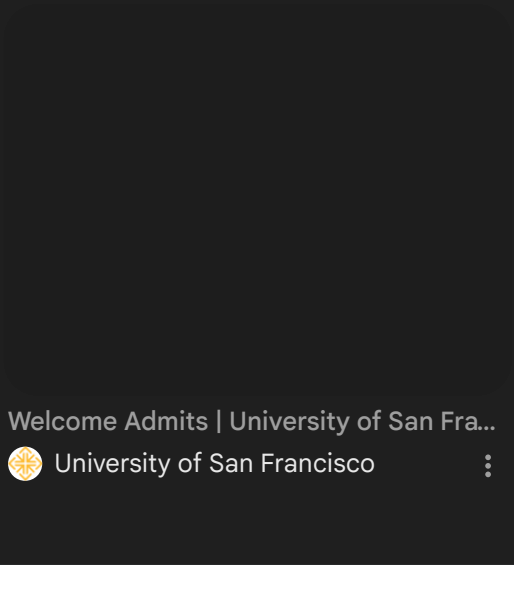
application deferral : r/usfca

However, a deferral is better than nothing! It's not a no and hopefully you'll get in!! Even if you get waitlisted, you may still be accepted.

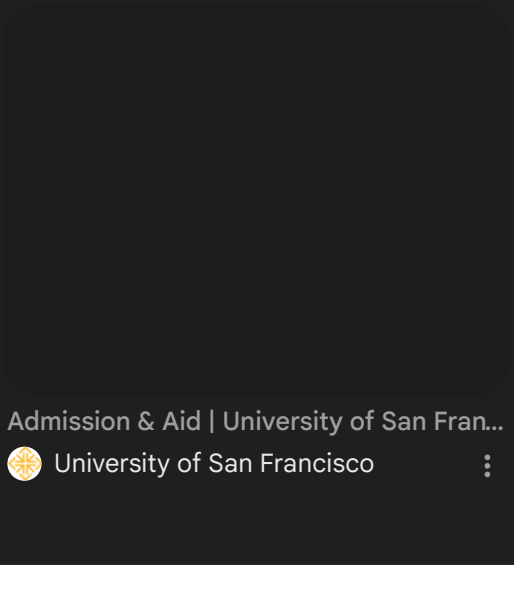
Images

Welcome Admits | University of San Fra...
University of San Francisco

Deferring your Undergraduate Enrollme...
University of San Francisco



Welcome Admits | University of San Fra...
University of San Francisco



Admission & Aid | University of San Fran...
University of San Francisco

More images >

Office of Admissions | University of South Florida
https://admissions.usf.edu

Understanding College Admissions Lingo

Mar 5, 2025 — Deferred admission means that the college needs a little more time to review your application. Some colleges may ask you to send additional ...

University of San Francisco
https://www.usfca.edu

FAQ - School of Law

Does USF defer enrollment? USF does not offer admission deferments. Admissions decisions are based on the quality and competitiveness of the applicant pool at ...

People also search for

Does university of San Francisco meet full need

USF tuition assistance

USF financial Aid Office hours

More search results

Ask and explore anything with the Google app

Try app

Results are personalized - Try without personalization

77042, Houston, TX - Based on your past activity

Update location

Dark theme: on Help Feedback

Privacy Terms